

EPHAR Young Investigators Award 2019

Call for Applications

EPHAR is pleased to announce that two awards of 1,000€ each will be given to young pharmacologists who have each published an outstanding research paper in the past two years (2017-2018).

Requirements:

Applicant must

- be under 35 years (at date of deadline);
- have published an outstanding paper in the past two years as first author;
- have conducted the submitted study in a European institution;
- be a member of one of EPHAR's member societies.

Application documents:

- publication as pdf file (if paper is accepted, but not yet published, please send the manuscript and confirmation of acceptance)
- a letter explaining i) how the study has advanced the field of pharmacology and ii) the contribution of the applicant to the study (for multi-author publications). Relevance of the study to the field of pharmacology is the single most important criterion for selection of the awardees.
- proof of age (copy of personal ID document)
- statement of membership to EPHAR member society (signed by official of the society)

Applications with all required documents in a single file are to be submitted in electronic form to the EPHAR Secretary General, Prof. Andreas Papapetropoulos (e-mail: apapapet@pharm.uoa.gr and Cc secretariat.ephar@segr.it).

Deadline: 31 May 2019

The outcome is anticipated to be announced by the end of June 2019.

The award ceremony will take place during the 8th EPHAR Congress in Prague, July 5-9, 2020. Applicants should be present at the awards ceremony in order to receive the award.

The Federation of European Pharmacological Societies

Executive Committee

President Mojca Kržan (Slovenia), Secretary General Andreas Papapetropoulos (Greece); Treasurer Giuseppe Cirino (Italy); Committee Members Robin Hiley (UK), Markus Forsberg (Finland), Antoinette Maassen-van den Brink (Netherlands), María Jesús Sanz Ferrando (Spain), Ondřej Slanař (Czech Republic), Markus Zeitlinger (Austria)